LOS ANGELES -- Jewish Big Brothers Big Sisters (JBBBS) recently awarded 35 graduating and former Little Brothers and Little Sisters scholarships to assist in their post-secondary education plans. The event was held at the Skirball Cultural Center in Los Angeles.

"We are so proud to see how these Little Brothers and Little Sisters have developed in their academic achievements and inspirational community spirit," JBBBS Scholarship Committee Chair Avi Wacht said.

Founded in 1915, JBBBS specializes in mentoring children through its core matching program and school-based mentoring program. It is also home to Camp Max Straus.

"The awards to our proud scholars reflect our commitment to their continued growth and development," JBBBS President and CEO Margy Feldman said. Approximately 2,000 children benefit from JBBBS' programs and services annually.
